MEDIA RELEASE

ROUND ONE OF THE BANK WINDHOEK NAMIBIAN NATIONAL ENDURO SERIES TO KICK DUST AROUND TONY RUST RACE TRACK THIS SATURDAY

The first race in the Bank Windhoek Namibian National Enduro Series will take place at the Tony Rust race track this coming Saturday, 11 February 2012. This event, co-sponsored by Propshaft Engineering, is also the first round of the FIM (Fédération Internationale de Motocyclisme - International Motorcycling Federation) Africa Southern Off-Road Challenge (SORC). Riders from Zambia, Botswana and South Africa will compete against their Namibian counterparts over rough and very rocky terrain.

“Bank Windhoek is proud to see riders from outside Namibia participating in this race. We are sponsoring the Namibian Enduro Series now for the third consecutive year and we are excited to see the growth of this sport code”, said Riaan van Rooyen, Head: Corporate Communication and Social Investment at Bank Windhoek.

Satcom will once again provide the transponder system used for timekeeping and route checking.

The race starts on Saturday at 9h00. Refreshments will be on sale at the track and the public is invited to attend this event with the refuelling area at the track offering a good viewpoint.
